

2012 Johann Strauss Ball

Pre-Ball Dance Lessons

Viennese Waltz & Viennese Quadrille

JOHANN STRAUSS
FOUNDATION

Bring your Strauss Ball friends and join us for two fun evenings to learn the stirring Viennese Waltz and the fun (and easy) Viennese Quadrille.

The Quadrille, from the opera Die Fledermaus, is a series of short, easy, and delightful movements of music danced in formation and performed at midnight by guests at the Balls in Vienna. It is a grand and fun time for all! We also take pleasure in dancing the Viennese Waltz to some of the music at the Ball. This lesson will give you some great pointers to help you enjoy this exhilarating dance.

The evenings will begin with a warm-up and general practice time of swing, foxtrot and waltz.
